

Short Biography

MATILDA W. PARKER

*Record of Success
Delivering Profit – Driven Solutions*

Ruling Elder Matilda Wokie Parker is an executive with over 25-years of experience in Finance, Business Operations, Governance and General Management.

Madame Parker holds a successful track record as a visionary, creator and driver of strategies and industry best practices.

Ms. Parker is the current CEO of the P. Ernest Parker Group of Companies, focusing on Real Estate Development / Rental and Agriculture in Liberia. She is also the CEO of the Matilda Wokie Parker Foundation started in 2009 to provide financial / tuition assistance to underprivileged families, resolve Palava Hut land / electoral disputes in the 15 counties, and find legal representation for low income families.

Madame Parker holds an Associates of Art in Accounting, a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, a Bachelor of Science in Computer Information System with magna cum laude honors and an Executive MBA from the University of Texas.

Ms. Parker proudly extends her leadership acuity to her community and has a true passion for charitable endeavors benefitting sports, seniors, women and children as illustrated through her Foundation. Her affinity for giving back to her community stems from the guidance and support she received from her family, church, community, and schools in her formative years.

Madame Parker is an Elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Monrovia. She has one son, Ernest Nicholas Brewer and one granddaughter, Embirlee Nichole Brewer.