GATHER

Prelude

Call to Worship

One: This is the day that the Lord has made!

All: Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

One: Let us worship God.

Opening Hymn

Prayer of Confession

One: Let us now confess our sins, trusting in God's boundless mercy and grace.

All: Merciful God,
We confess that we have sinned against you
In thought, word, and deed,
By what we have done,
And by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
With our whole heart and mind and strength.
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
Help us to amend what we are,
And direct what we shall be,
That we may delight in your will
And walk in your ways,
To the glory of your holy name.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Although this ancient text has often been used at church dedications, the first stanza clearly refers to the people of God and the second to the place where they meet. The stately and soaring tune is aptly named for the edifice where the composer served as organist and is buried.

This hymn represents a Kenyan adaptation of the gospel hymn, "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less" (see no. 353), a connection that is most obvious in their similar refrains. Both the original and derived texts affirm that our hope is not in ourselves but in Christ's redeeming work.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). It contains a vocal melody with lyrics underneath. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "from the flood, and I'm saved be - cause of his blood. of my days, Je - sus Christ will be my heart's praise. an - y fear; in Christ's righ - teous - ness I am here."
