

Westminster Presbyterian Church welcomes you to

African Family Night

Saturday, September 21st 5:30–8:30 pm

Building Brighter Futures for Vulnerable Children in Ghana, Liberia & Sierra Leone

African Drumming throughout the evening by Seth Tagoe

- Welcome & Remarks: Leah Threatte–Westminster’s Clerk of Session & our Emcee
- Opening Prayer: Rev. Heather Kirk-Davidoff–Pastor, Westminster Presbyterian Church
- Greetings: Lois Wilson–former Co-Chair of Westminster’s African Mission Committee
- Special Guest Poet: Nell Stokes–Community Activist
- Buffet Dinner: Tables to be called up by number
- Gospel Music Performance: Humphrey Gold, “Have You Made Up Your Mind to Praise the Lord”
- Fashion Show: Show your beautiful attire!
Hosted by Roseline Arah Takor–President, Cameroonian Association of the Greater Capital District
- Dancing for Dollars: We invite you to join in!
- Closing Thanks and Gratitude

Photography and videography courtesy of Mike Feurstein, The DON'T WAIT Project

WESTMINSTER
— Presbyterian Church —

woven together